

Clayton Broad

Send Flowers

Share

BROAD, Clayton Brent, 56, of Land O' Lakes, passed away Thursday, May 12, 2005, at University Hospital. He was born in Presque Isle, Maine, and lived in Pasco County most of his life. He was Baptist by faith and served with the U.S. Army in Vietnam. He was very patriotic. He was the owner of Maze Construction and superintendent for F. M. Liner Construction, and past president of FFA Alumni in Land O' Lakes. He was a friend and father figure to many, had a great sense of humor and was a practical joker. He enjoyed spending time with family and friends, and was very giving and present for the ones he loved. Survivors include his wife, Janice of Land O' Lakes; three sons, Russell Broad of China Lake, Calif., Brian and wife Theresa Broad of Land O' Lakes, and Michael and wife Marcie Broad of Lincoln, Neb.; sister, Bernadine and husband Rick Chapman of Toronto, Canada; father, Graydon and wife Natalie Broad of Moose Mountain, New Brunswick, Canada; mother-in-law, Betty Anderson of Spring Hill; ne phews, Donnie and Tony Scovill, both of Canada; and four grandchildren. A chapel service will be held 12:30 p.m. Friday, May 27, 2005, at the Seven Hills Chapel of Brewer & Sons Funeral Homes. Clayton will be laid to rest with military honors at Florida National Veterans Cemetery, Bushnell, following the service. Services entrusted to Brewer & Sons Funeral Homes and Cremation Services A Family Owned Service Company Seven Hills Chapel (352) 688-4991