In Loving Memory

Martin G. Miller

September 27, 1948 - October 7, 2019

Martin G. Miller, 71, passed away at his home in Walla Walla, WA on October 7, 2019. A Private Family Service will be held, Saturday, October 12, 2019 at Mountain View-Colonial DeWitt, Walla Walla, WA.

Martin was born to Martin P. and Anna L. (Wirtz) Miller in Grants Pass, OR on September 27, 1948. Martin graduated from East High School in Cheyenne, WY in 1967 and in November of 1967 he entered the Army. He attended the Army Aviation School at Ft. Rucker, AL and graduated in 1969. Martin was sent to Vietnam, he completed two tours of duty flying air evacuation, medical, troop extractions, and gunship missions. His military encompassed serving in two wars. He retired from his active duty and Wyoming Army National Guard service of 28 years on June 18, 1996. On the civilian side following his return from Vietnam, he began working with his father as a carpenter. Martin took great pride in perfecting his craft. Some of the positions he held were Quality Control Supervisor for the SOHIO Endicott Project on Prudhoe Bay, AK from 1985-1987. He was also a full time technician in the Army National Guard as a Flight Operations Specialist. After moving from Cheyenne, Wy to Star Valley, Wy, he returned to his love of carpentry. In 1999 he and his wife, a registered nurse, opened a medical equipment and supply store in Thayne, Wy spanning 10 years until selling the business in 2009.

On the personal side, Martin was a loving husband to his wife Susan. He was a devoted father, grandfather, and friend to many. He had a deep abiding faith, Martin accepted Jesus Christ as his Savior in March of 2000. He was secure in his salvation and life ever after. He was loved by many and will be greatly missed.

Martin is survived by his wife, Susan Olson-Miller, a daughter, Amanda Jo McClanahan, a son, Martin J. Miller, a brother, Joseph Miller, and a granddaughter, Molly Ann Miller. He was preceded in death by his parents, and his brother Jack Miller.

Memorial contributions may be made to Providence St. Mary Regional Cancer Center or the Blue Mountain Humane Society through the funeral home at 1551 The Dalles Military Rd, Walla Walla, WA 99362. Friends and family may share memories and sign his online guestbook at www.mountainview-colonialdewitt.com

After 59 years of sharing memories with you, the hunting, the fishing, the military time--25+ years, it is easily said that I will miss you and respect you for all you have done for me personally and the people that surround you. God bless you, my friend, and your family. Ilo & Mitzi Harris P.S. Always got a chuckle out the the JibJab cards you used to send!

Martin was fun. I liked his great sense of humor. One of his accomplishments not mentioned - he got Sue and I on horses. I think he got a real kick out of that. He should have. Rest in peace Martin. Your service to country was admirable and appreciated. Kathy Veresh
